WASHINGTON, D.C. 20505

August 25, 1981

25X1 Professor [redacted]
25X1 Department of Political Science

25X1 Dear Professor [redacted]

STAT I'm sorry to have been delayed in responding to your STAT letter of August 6, 1981 but [redacted] did not return to Headquarters until today. I have been in touch with him, with [redacted] and with one of our supervisors on the Chinese account and can now assure you of a positive response from all parties to your request for meetings.

STAT [redacted] is no longer in this area so will be unable STAT to brief you but I have secured the services of [redacted] who STAT will brief you on China. [redacted] is highly regarded here at the STAT Agency and should be able to answer your questions. Both [redacted] [redacted] expressed pleasure at the prospect of seeing you again.

STAT All three of the men will be free on September 16 and I STAT would propose that date for your visit to our building, if convenient for you. Please let me know by letter or phone [redacted] when you will be arriving at Langley. Timing for your visit on the 16th is up to you as [redacted] and [redacted] are free to see you at any time on that day.

I enjoyed meeting you last year and am looking forward to your visit in September.

Sincerely,

[redacted]
Coordinator for Academic Relations and External Analytical Support
